Visa

What is the procedure for obtaining a visa?

USA, Australia, Canada, Japan, Korea, New Zealand:

Students from these countries do not have to apply for a visa prior to their departure from their home country, but must apply for their electronic residence permit (visa) within 3 months after arrival in Germany.

The following documents will be required: an application form (to be filled out by the student), a confirmation letter of enrollment and insurance (supplied by our office), biometric photos and the application fee of approx. 100-130 Euro (to be paid by the student).

Our office will assist the students with this procedure once they are in Bonn.

Other countries:

We will send out a letter of acceptance to the partner universities prior to the students' departure. This is required by the students to apply for their visa in their own country. They need to apply for an electronic residence permit in Bonn within three months after arrival. (Please see above.)

Program Eligibility

Student eligibility

Undergraduate/Graduate/PhD with good academic standing

Maximum number of students accepted

In accordance with the agreement established between the University of Bonn and the respective Partner University.

Health Insurance

Is the purchase of medical insurance compulsory?	Students must have proof of sufficient insurance coverage upon arrival in Bonn. We recommend purchasing a German public health insurance policy. It covers the prevention, early-detection and treatment of illnesses for out-patients and also includes dental and hospital treatment. It does not cover repatriation costs and in some cases students may have to contribute to the costs of treatment e.g. prescriptions. This insurance policy is only available to students up to the age of 29 years. Students over the age of 29 are requested to purchase their own private insurance.
Cost	Approx. 90-95 Euro per month.

The University of Bonn

The Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn (University of Bonn) was founded in 1818. With a student body of about 37.000, the University is one of Germany's largest academic institutions and with about 4.800 foreign students from all over the world also one of the most internationally oriented. A wide range of course offerings, an outstanding reputation in teaching and research and a unique location make the University an especially attractive place to study. Bonn, the former Federal Capital of Germany, is located on the Rhine and a centre for the Rhineland's way of life, art and culture. The city celebrated in 1989 the 2000th Anniversary of its founding as a Roman settlement. Bonn is Germany's UN city with its 19 UN Agencies and has approx. 150 international organisations. Furthermore, the city is also the birthplace of Beethoven, has a beautiful historic town center with a daily open market, numerous museums and many other buildings and events of significance and cultural interest.

PROGRAMS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF BONN

Programs at the University of Bonn are offered by the faculties of Protestant Theology, Catholic Theology, Law and Economics, Medicine, Arts and Humanities, Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Agriculture and Education. The Faculty of Arts and Humanities offers programs in Anthropology, Archaeology, English, French, German, Dutch, History, Greek, Latin, Linguistics, Philosophy, Spanish, Sociology, Psychology and others. The Sciences include Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Geography, Computer Science, Meteorology and Mineralogy. For a list of all courses and degrees offered by the University of Bonn, please see the following website: www.uni-bonn.de/studying/courses-and-degrees

UNIQUE FEATURES

Over seventy years of tradition and experience go into the University of Bonn's immersion study abroad program. Students may expect to be supported by the full range of student services including academic guidance, intercultural experience, counseling, and registration assistance. The university language proficiency requirement for foreign students is waived for program students and they can profit from the program's flexible character by choosing from language and topical classes for international students as well as the full course catalogue of the University.

During the semester the International Office offers an extensive cultural program as well as various other programs to ensure cultural immersion.
